ANZIO PLAN

I. BBC CODE

1. BBC messages will be broadcast in German on daily programs at the following hours (always GMT) and frequencies:

0600 - 0610	5.5 - 6.5 megacycles	49 + 54 meters
1300 - 1310	9.5 - 10.5 "	31 + 25 "
1900 - 1915	9.5 - 10.5 "	31 + 25 "

2. Each message will consist of two sentences (see b, (4), (a) below for exceptions). The first sentence will be an identifier; the second will contain the message proper.

(a) The identifying sentence will be: Die Apfeln Kosten --- (number) pfennig. The only variable in the sentence will be a number, to be found on the following calendar, beside the date on which the message is broadcast. Any message broadcast before 1 March will use any number, arbitrarily chosen.

b. The second or message sentence will do four things:
(1) notify of contact flight, or (2) notify of supply drop, or (3) cancel either of these arrangements, or (4) follow up a successful contact with a meaningless message.

- (1) Notice of J-E contact. To notify the agent of a coming J-E contact the second sentence will have this form:
RELATION.....verb.....number (indicating the hour, as explained below).....food (indicating tonight), or drink (tomorrow night), or clothing (day after tomorrow night).

Examples:

- (a) My father sold 23 cabbages = J-E contact to-night at 2145.
(b) My cousins drank 10 bottles of wine = J-E contact tomorrow night at 2000.
(c) His uncle has 42 ties = J-E contact day after tomorrow night at 2330.

Remark:

All contacts will take place between 2000 and 0400. These hours will be referred to by this system of numbers:

2000 = 10
2100 = 20
2200 = 30
2300 = 40
2400 = 50
0100 = 60
0200 = 70
0300 = 80
0400 = 90

The first digit will number the hours from 1 to 9.
The second digit will indicate the quarter-hours, by substituting 1, 2, or 3.
Thus:

2300 = 40
2315 = 41
2330 = 42
2345 = 43

- (2) Notice of parachute drop. A drop will be indicated by the addition of a price phrase, to the second sentence of the message, thus:

RELATION.....verb....number....food, or drink, or clothing ....Price. Marks, francs, or dollars will indicate containers; pfennigs, centimes, or cents will indicate bodies.

Example:

My niece bought 12 blouses for 3 dollars and 2 cents = parachute drop day after tomorrow night at 2030 hours; consisting of 3 containers and 2 bodies.

(3) Cancellation:

To cancel any arranged contact or drop flight, the second sentence will contain a mention of ink.

It need not follow the form prescribed above. Any mention of ink in a BBC message will cancel all arrangements.

(4) Follow-up message:

(a) The day after an unsuccessful contact flight or drop operation, the second phrase of the BBC message will contain mention of a bird. If the phrase is negative it will indicate that the plane did not take off, or for some reason did not fly over the pinpoint. If the phrase is positive it will indicate that the plane believes it flew over the pinpoint and from our point of view everything went as it should. This message will not be broadcast at 0600, but will be broadcast at 1300 and 1900.

(b) In case another operation is to be mounted within the next three days, this follow-up message will contain a third phrase notifying of the operation.

(c) If the operation was successful, the second phrase of the follow-up message will resemble those of the preceding days, except that the number indicating time will be less than ten (10) and therefore meaningless

II. J-E PLAN AND CODES.

1. First Contact:

The first contact with Anzio will not be arranged by BBC message, but will be made according to the following arbitrary plan. The first contact will be attempted on P-3 at 2400 hours (GMT). "P" in this formula represents the night of the parachute operation that actually drops the agent into the field, the whole night being included in the date of the day just ending. Thus, if the agent is dropped in the evening of 24 February (or any time during this same night) the first contact will be attempted the evening (or night) of 1 March.

The place of the first contact is Gernsbach (GSOS 4416: V-2, 440-190) near Gaggenau. This is point one (see 5 below). Attempts will continue at this same point until contact is made.

2. Code Names:

- a. The operator in the plane will be known as VIC.
- b. The agent will be known as WILLEY (see 3a, below)

3. Danger Signals:

- a. If the plane suspects that all is not well with the agent or doubts the identity of the ground operator, it will ask him to spell his name. The agent, if all is well, will always spell his name Willey, as given above. If the name is spelled in any other fashion, for example Willy or Willie, the plane will be alerted that something is wrong. If a substitute operates for the agent, the substitute will likewise be named Willey.
- b. If the agent has been taken by the enemy and is being forced to operate, he will indicate the fact by this variation on the regular procedure. Instead of closing his speaking interval with: "Sprechen sie weiter", he will say at the end of each speaking interval: "Ich bin fertig, sprechen sie weiter".
- c. If either the plane or the agent is obliged to interrupt the contact because of enemy action, the signal will be the phrase: "Ubrigens, soll ich dich von Maria grussen."

4. Emergency Contacts:

If contact has not been established within 30 days after the agent is in the field, three final attempts will be made on the night of P+30, P+31, and P+32, at 2400 hours, over point one - Gernsbach. These attempts will be made without being announced by BBC messages. Contact will be attempted for 30 minutes each of these nights.

5. Contact Points:

The following points of contact have been submitted by the agent and approved by the Air Corps. Contacts may take place at various times at any of these points. They will be referred to by number as point one, point two, point three, etc.:

- (1) Gaggenau - Gernsbach: V-2, 440-190
- (2) Stuttgart - Esslingen: W-3, 130-150
- (3) Mannheim - Viernheim: U-3, 600-050
- (4) Karlsruhe - Aue: V-3, 520-430
- (5) Pforzheim - Goblrichen: V-3, 710-400
- (6) Heilbronn - Flein: U-3, 090-560

Remark: All map references are to GSGS 4416.

6. Contact Rules:

- a. The ground operator will send everything in the clear.
- b. The plane will send both clear and coded messages. The latter will be encoded on a one-time pad to which the agent holds the decode pad. The agent will require help to take down the coded message during contact. Thus, if alone, he will be unable to take code from the plane.
- c. The coded message will be read from the plane in the following alphabet code:

ANTON	NORDPOL
BERTHA	OTTO
CAESAR	PAULA
DORA	QUASI
EMIL	RICHARD
FRIEDRICH	SIEGFRIED
GUSTAV	THEODOR
HEINRICH	ULRICH
IDA	VIKTOR
JULIUS	WILHELM
KONRAD	XANTHIPPE
LUDWIG	YPSILON
MARTHA	ZEPPELIN

7. Code Names of Certain Cities:

Both the agent and the plane will use these code names for the following cities:

Pforzheim	=	Paris
Karlsruhe	=	Kharkov
Stuttgart	=	Stamboul
Heilbronn	=	Halifax
Baden Baden	=	Berne
Gaggenau	=	Ghent
Mannheim	=	Madrid
Freudenstadt	=	Florenz
